THE HERRON CASE AGAIN CONTINUED

DEFENDANT WANTED TIME TO PREPARE MOTION TO QUASH AFFIDAVIT.

Those who went up to the police court yesterday to hear the outcome of the trial of Dr. J. S. Herron were again disappointed, as the case was again continued, and it may be tried this morning.

The case is an interesting one and many are impatient about the matter, but at the request of the defendant in order to prepare a motion to quash the affidavit, the case was again continued. This motion, it is understood, will attack the validity of the ordinance as to the right of a sanitary inspector to enter the home of a private individual against the latter's will.

The decision of the case will have an important bearing upon the future work of the health authorities in their present fight for control of the fever situation and it is therefore looked forward to with more than ordinary interest.

DREAMLAND CITY AGAIN IN TROUBLE

HEAVY FINES ASSESSED BY BOILER INSPECTORS FOR NON-COMPLIANCE WITH LICENSE LAW.

Nearly everyone remembers the little craft Dreamland City which was built and operated by Mayor C. H. Bliss long before that versatile gentleman ever got into politics. Nearly everyone also remembers the interesting little time which the government boiler inspectors had with the vessel when they were trying to decide in what classification she belonged.

The Dreamland City was finally sold to parties in Mobile and as appears in the following from the Mobile Herald the little craft has had trouble over there. The Herald says:

Vessel Heavily Fined. "Special Deputy Collector of Customs F. F. Conway 'got busy' with the patrol boat Dreamland City, doing duty at the mouth of Mobile river, and as a result the peculiar craft is tied up across the river, out of commission, and a large fine against her owner and master. The Dreamland City was built in Pensacola over a year ago, and at the time was called a 'bustard' vessel. The builder provided the craft with a peculiar kind of apparatus whereby water and gasoline were mixed, causing a vapor which propelled the craft very rapidly. United States inspectors viewed the vessel and declared her not amenable to the laws regulating steam vessels.

This fact was sufficient to keep her immune, also her owner and master, from license taxes necessary for the operation of steam vessels. Special Deputy County Clerk Conway went to the vessel last evening and found that former conditions had been changed and that the Dreamland City was being operated by steam. Then it was that he 'got busy.' The vessel after investigation, was fined $500 for operating without a certificate of inspection; J. H. Landers, the owner and master, was fined $100 for acting as engineer and master without license, and the vessel was fined $100 for operating without a license. It is understood Mr. Landers will endeavor to have some of the fines remitted.

The Dreamland City was declared, at the time she was built to be the only vessel of the kind ever coming under the observation of inspectors, and she proved for some time a puzzle to them.

Their Pensacola Experience. The inspectors will no doubt long remember the experience they had when they inspected the vessel in Pensacola. She was operated by a peculiar combination hot water and vapor power equipment which Mr. Bliss had invented and built himself and which he claimed did not come under a steam power classification and the boat was not therefore subject to steam boiler license.

The inspectors looked the craft over and decided that the power was steam power. In an effort to prove that the power was not steam but vapor, Mr. Bliss put a lighted match to some escaping steam or vapor from a gauge cock with the result that an explosion followed which drove Capt. Bliss and the two inspectors overboard and turned all of them more or less painfully.

After that experience the inspectors did not hesitate to class the boat as having vapor power and they took no more chances in trying to work her into the steam power classification.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who vic its the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. ## TAMPA TO HAVE 20-FOOT CHANNEL

WORK HAS COMMENCED AND NEARLY A HALF MILLION DOLLARS WILL BE EXPENDED ON IT.

The Tampa Times says: Work on the twenty-foot channel from deep water in the bay to the docks of Tampa commences tomorrow.

This simple announcement is one of the most important that has been marked in Tampa for many a day. It means the consummation of the great plans of Congressman Sparkman for his home city, and the realization of the aspirations of every loyal citizen of Tampa. It also means, in all probability, the commencement of the great ocean-going commerce that should of right be centered in this city.

The commencement of work on the cut had been planned for the latter part of September, and in fact, the engineers' office was formerly notified by the contractor that the dredge would commence on September 28th. However, the failure of the oil tanks to hold fuel for the dredge to arrive in the city on time, caused the delay of a few days. However, the oil tanks have arrived and are now in place, and the dredge will turn over this afternoon for the first time under her new machinery.

The dredging operations tomorrow will be accomplished under the act appropriating the sum of $4,350 for the securing of a twenty-foot channel from deep water to the mouth of the Hillsborough river. It also included a turning basin at the mouth of the river, and set horizontal to the axis of the channel.

The contract was let several weeks ago to the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Dredging Company, which bid at the rate of 14 cents per cubic yard for all soft material removed, including mud, sand and shell, and $4.90 per cubic yard for rock. The specifications estimate that 2,315,000 cubic yards of sand and 3,300 cubic yards of rock will have to be removed in completing the dredging contract.

The contractor has twenty-three months for concluding the work. At present only one dredge of the company is engaged on the work, but if found necessary, another may be sent later. Work will be commenced on the upper end of the cut, near the mouth of the river.

Under the terms of the appropriation only $100,000 is immediately available and should the next congress fail to appropriate further sums, the work will stop, as the winning contractor elected to quit work as soon as the amount of money immediately available became used up. However, it is more than likely that as the project has been endorsed by congress, that Congressman Sparkman will be able to secure the additional funds necessary to complete the work from the next congress.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by all druggists.
